Save the Natural Beauty of Tsutanuma

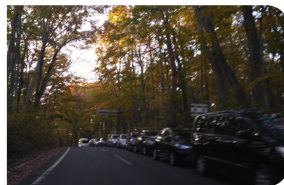

Avoid Congestion

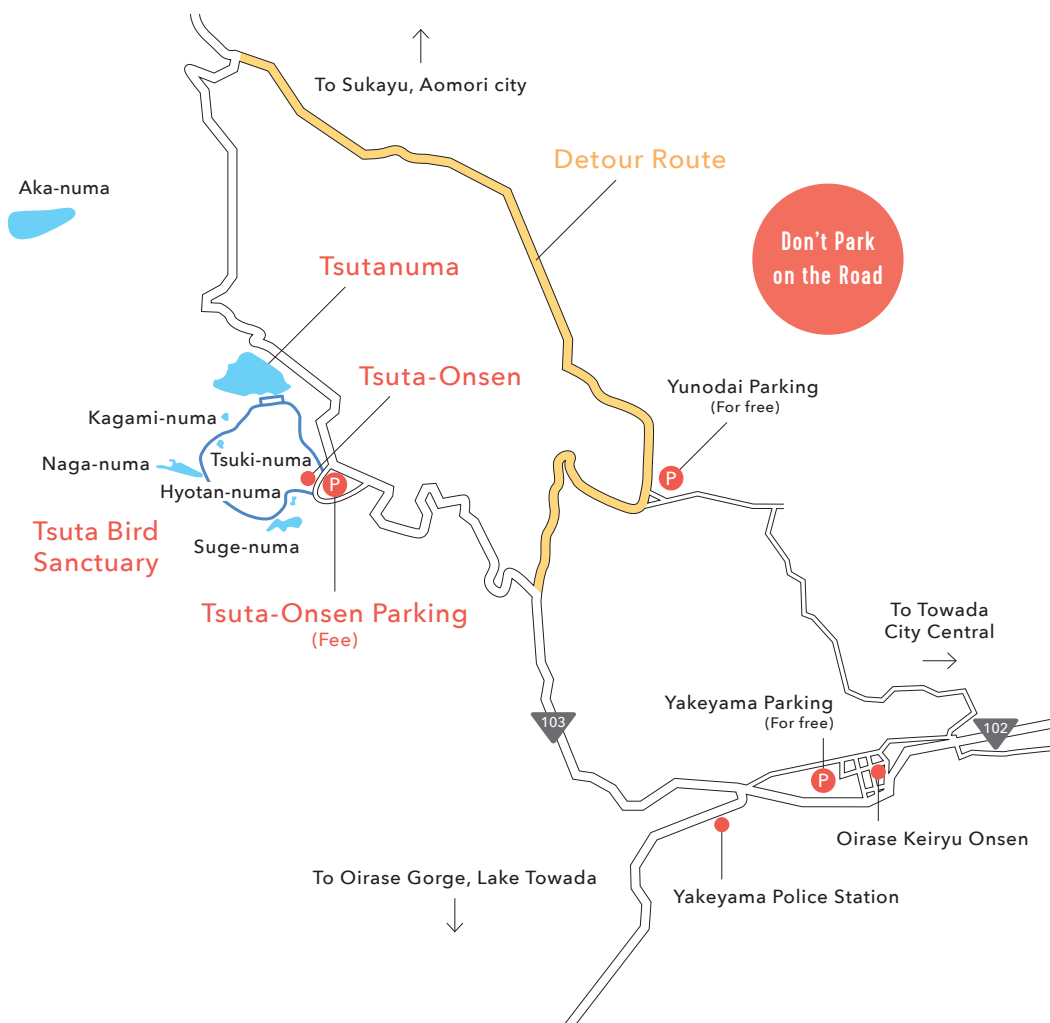

Avoid Damaging for the Wetland Ecosystem

Avoid Blocking the Traffic with On-road Parking

After the beautiful red scenery of Tsutanuma went viral in 2015, there has been a significant increase in road congestion, uncontrolled on-road parking and destruction of vegetation. From 2020, related organizations decided to introduce a booking and fee system during the high season to help tackle these issues. Your fee helps protect the environment of Tsutanuma and Tsuta Bird Sanctuary.
